If you have paid in full or entered into a payment plan for each of your accounts in the last seven days, you don't need to do anything else.

You still need to lodge on time, even if you can't pay in full by the due date. This will give you certainty of your tax and super position, and shows us you're aware of your obligations and doing your best to meet them.

To find out more about how to lodge, visit ato.gov.au/howtolodge

If you're unable to pay in full for all accounts by 18 October 2024, you may be able to set up a payment plan using our online services, which are available 24 hours a day.

Need help?

If you are finding it difficult to pay or lodge on time you can talk to us about your situation, we're here to help:

- › call us on 13 11 42 between 8:00am and 6:00pm, Monday to Friday, or
- › contact your tax or BAS agent for assistance.

If you don't pay or contact us

If you don't pay or contact us, we may take stronger action to recover the money you owe, by:

- › directing your bank, employer or other third party to pay money from your bank account, wages or other payments directly to us
- › recovering company debts from you personally as a director of a company.

Each day your debt isn't paid, it may increase. This is because general interest charge (GIC) may apply on any overdue balance until the whole amount is paid. To find out more about GIC, including the current rate, visit ato.gov.au/gic

Remember, if you are finding it difficult to pay, you can talk to us so we can help – we'll work with you to develop a plan to get you back on track.
