If you don't pay or contact us

By continuing to not pay on time you risk stronger collection action. We are authorised under the Taxation Administration Act 1953 to collect this debt.

If you don't pay, we can:

- › direct your bank, employer or other third party to pay money from your bank account, wages or other payments directly to us
- › recover company debts from you personally as a director
- › hire a debt collection agency to collect payment on our behalf, or
- › begin bankruptcy or liquidation proceedings.

Some tax debts when greater than $100,000 can be reported to credit reporting bureaus, this can impact on your ability to access credit. For more information visit ato.gov.au/disclosurebusinessstaxdebt

Each day your debt isn't paid, it may increase. This is because general interest charges (GIC) may apply on any overdue balance until the whole amount is paid. To find out more about interest including the current rate, visit ato.gov.au/gic

For information on budgeting for tax and preventing debt, you can visit ato.gov.au/managingpayments where we have tips available to help you stay on track, including making pre-payments to get ahead.
