We have cancelled your GST registration

To whom it may concern

We've cancelled your goods and services tax (GST) registration because you've advised us:

- ■your GST turnover is below the required threshold
- ■you no longer want to be registered, and
- ■you're not required to be registered.

The cancellation takes effect from midnight on 1 November 2024.

What you need to know

You will no longer report GST to us on your activity statement for any future tax periods. However, you will need to lodge any outstanding activity statements and account for any outstanding GST for periods up to the date of cancellation.

If you're required to lodge an annual GST return, you will only receive the correct GST instalment credit amount if you lodge your activity statement for the corresponding year prior to lodging your GST return.

Although you may no longer have an obligation to lodge your activity statements, you may still be required to lodge income tax returns. You need to ensure all income tax returns are lodged by the due date.

What you need to do

If you're registered for pay as you go withholding, pay as you go instalments or fringe benefits tax obligations, you need to keep lodging activity statements. If you need to cancel any of your other tax obligations, please phone us on 13 28 66 between 8.00am and 6.00pm, Monday to Friday.

If you still have business assets to which you were, or are, entitled to GST credits after the cancellation date you may need to make an adjustment in your final activity statement. For more information about adjusting your activity statement, phone us on the number above.

If you accounted on a cash basis at the time of cancellation, any amounts of GST, adjustments or GST credits you have not yet accounted for will be attributable to your concluding tax period.

Review rights

You may object to our decision to cancel your GST registration and the date of cancellation if you're dissatisfied as these are GST reviewable decisions. You need to lodge the objection in writing within 60 days from the date of service of this notice. For information about your objection rights, visit www.ato.gov.au/objections
